

Phone - call both Dan Burke ex. 401 (CEO) and Dan Sullivan ex. 313 (VP); leave message if they don't pick up

781-762-4001

Dan Burke: ex. 401

Dan Sullivan: ex. 313

Hello Dan,

My name is _____ [if you are family of an individual, also say relationship and to whom + if you are a member of AFSCME or another union in MA, say which local; if you are outside of MA, just say name].

I am calling in support of the recently unionized direct care workers at The Arc of South Norfolk's day hab program and their demand to be given a date and time for a first bargaining session by this Friday, November 16th.

I believe that your dedicated staff, many of whom are long-term and have years of experience, know best what each individual needs and how to provide each individual with the best care and programming possible. Each day and dollar spent refusing to negotiate with your workers is time and money that could be better spent working with staff to improve the program for each and every individual who attends.

While I understand that you are currently in the middle of an appeal, I am also aware that you can withdraw that appeal at any time in order to begin negotiations. I support your employees' demand for a date and time for a first bargaining session by this Friday, November 16th, and I will continue to support workers at The Arc until they have a first union contract.

Email - send to both Dan Burke (CEO) and Dan Sullivan (VP)

DBurke@arcsouthnorfolk.org

DSullivan@arcsouthnorfolk.org

Hi Dan,

My name is _____ [if you are family of an individual, also say relationship and to whom + if you are a member of AFSCME or another union in MA, say which local; if you are outside of MA, just say name].

I am writing in support of the recently unionized direct care workers at The Arc of South Norfolk's day habilitation program and their demand to be given a date and time for a first bargaining session by this Friday, November 16th.

I believe that your dedicated staff, many of whom are long-term and have years of experience, know best what each individual needs and how to provide each individual with the best care and programming possible. Each day and dollar spent refusing to negotiate with your workers is time and money that could be better spent working with staff to improve the program for each and every individual who attends.

While I understand that you are currently in the middle of an appeal, I am also aware that you can withdraw that appeal at any time in order to begin negotiations. I support your employees' demand for a date and time for a first bargaining session by this Friday, November 16th, and I will continue to support workers at The Arc until they have a first union contract.

Sincerely,
